① / Heinrichs W. Bagatais, also known as

During 1962, the Australian Director - General of Security, advised that Heinrichs Bagatais, who was born September 12, 1919, in Balvi, Latvia, early in 1962, was an applicant for a Migrant Visa for Australia. Bagatais, at the time of his application, listed employment with "Roux LBS, Incorporated".

On July 3, 1963, Investigative Clerk Clegg Maurice Sneed of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) reviewed the passport file of Heinrichs Bagatais at the Passport Office, United States Department of State (USDS), and the following information was obtained:

On November 2, 1959, Bagatais, at New York City, made application for a passport for proposed six months trip to Fiji Islands, Japan, Hong Kong, and Australia to visit his mother who was then residing in Australia. Passport number 1768675 was issued to Bagatais at New York City on November 3, 1959. The passport bore a restriction on travel to Albania, Hungary and those portions of China, Korea and Viet-Nam under Communist control.

In his application for above passport, Bagatais listed his birth data as September 12, 1919, at Balvi, Latvia, and his permanent address as 412 Cathedral Parkway, New York, New York. He listed his mailing address at that time as "1 Cook Avenue, Canley Vale, N. S. W." He indicated he immigrated to the United States in December 1951, and had resided continuously from 1951 to 1959 at New York, New York; being naturalized a United States citizen in United States District Court, New York, New York, on April 12, 1957, Certificate Number 7932782. He listed his father as Andrejs Bagatais, born March 1887, at Balvi, Latvia, and his mother as Emma Bagatais, born March 21, 1889, at Balvi, Latvia; indicating neither parent was a United States citizen, and his mother was residing at Sydney, Australia.

Bagatais was described as six feet in height, blonde hair, blue eyes, left hand amputated and employed as a shipping clerk. He planned to depart the United States by air from New York City on November 15, 1959.

Bagatais' passport file revealed he renewed above passport at Sydney, Australia, on January 8, 1963, to expire November 2, 1963. He then indicated he had been in Australia since May 14, 1962, and was previously there from December 6, 1959 to January 20, 1960.

On September 30, 1963, NY T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Heinrichs Bagatais, who resides at 412 Cathedral Parkway, New York, New York, was employed during the early part of 1962 as a packer, for the Paragon Distributing Company, 110 East 153rd Street, New York, New York.

NY T-1, further advised that a previous residence for Bagatais, during 1952 was listed as 416 East 163rd Street, New York, New York.
